Case No. 20-cv-05799 LHK

ORDER ON FURTHER
PROCEDURES FOR IN CAMERA
REVIEW OF DOCUMENTS ON PRIVILEGE LOGS

Re: ECF 382

18 This order responds to the “Joint Statement Re: Privilege Log and Privilege 19 Disputes” filed December 14 at ECF 382. The Joint Statement was filed as requested by 20 District Court Judge Lucy H. Koh in her December 13 Amended Order Denying 21 Reconsideration and Clarifying Order to Compel, ECF 380.
22

23 First, to the extent the parties’ Joint Statement seeks to modify the deadlines set by 24 Judge Koh in ECF 372 (Order to Compel) and ECF 380 (Clarifying Order), the request is 25 denied. For example, Judge Koh in ECF 380 at 9:16-20 ordered Defendants to produce 26 “each day” from December 14 to December 21, on a rolling basis, documents in two 27 categories. Furthermore, she set a daily benchmark for this review. The Joint Statement, 28 on the other hand, seems to disregard the daily production ordered by Judge Koh. We will

1 be following the schedule and expectations set by Judge Koh.

2 Second, as to the privilege review schedule, we order as follows. All times
3 referenced are Pacific Standard Time.

4 For the December 14 privilege log, Plaintiffs must provide a list of challenged
5 entries by December 16 at 3:00 p.m.; counsel must confer regarding any privilege disputes
6 by December 16 at 7:00 p.m.; and the parties must file simultaneous briefs and any 7 supporting declarations on the privilege issues by December 17 at noon. Plaintiffs must 8 designate their highest-priority objections in their brief and provide a proposed order that
9 tracks the challenged privilege entries. Defendants must lodge the privileged documents
10 with the undersigned Magistrate Judges and file the log (as revised to reflect any changes 11 from the meet and confer process) by December 17 at noon.

12 By December 21 at 7:00 p.m., Defendants must produce a second privilege log 13 including any additional documents that have been withheld as privileged up to the time of 14 the final production. For the December 21 log, Plaintiffs must provide a list of challenged
15 entries by December 22 at 3:00 p.m.; counsel must confer regarding any privilege disputes
16 by December 22 at 7:00 p.m.; and the parties must file simultaneous briefs and any 17 supporting declarations on the privilege issues by December 23 at noon. Plaintiffs must 18 designate their highest-priority objections in their brief and provide a proposed order that 19 tracks the challenged privilege entries. Defendants must lodge the privileged documents
20 with the undersigned Magistrate Judges and file the log (as revised to reflect any changes 21 from the meet and confer process) by December 23 at noon.

22 As to the mechanics of the in-camera process, the parties should generally follow 23 the procedures used in October during our prior privilege reviews. See ECF 154-2 (prior 24 privilege log); 132, 140, 163 (earlier orders on privilege review process). We plan to rule 25 on the challenged privileges without need for a hearing.

26 Finally, we address the parties' proposals as to what will happen after our privilege 27 orders. ECF 382 at 4-5. While we are mindful of the arduous process of document

1 review, we do not agree in advance to the limits proposed by the parties. If any documents
2 are ordered produced, our orders will set a deadline for production. The parties should be 3 prepared to move with alacrity in response to our orders. If any party wishes to object, it
4 must do so before the deadline we set for production. If the parties are concerned about 5 privilege waiver, they should file a proposed claw back protective order under Fed. R.
6 Evid. 502 and Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(B) by December 17 at noon.

7 IT IS SO ORDERED.
